1. Booking the "bed" service, when available, entitles the purchaser to use one bed in a multiple-occupancy room shared with other users of the same sex, who may or may not belong to the same group. The allocation of the "bed" is the responsibility of the DRJ. Bath towels are not provided, and the user is responsible for making their own bed.

Young people under the age of 16 may not stay alone in a multiple-occupancy room, unless the person responsible for the booking assumes full responsibility in writing.

2. In double rooms and 4-bed multiple-occupancy rooms, with or without WC, the accommodation rate applies per room. In rooms with private WC, the user is entitled to a bath towel, replaced every three days, daily room cleaning and a change of bed linen once a week. The allocation of the room is the responsibility of the DRJ.

3. The extra bed, available in only one of the double rooms, entitles the user to an additional bed, without protective side rails, for a third occupant aged 3 or over. The DRJ does not provide beds for children up to and including 2 years old; this is the users' responsibility.
